

The title of today's sermon is _____

God's people and his plans are secure, even though falsehood will inevitably threaten and oppose them.

Expect God's truth to be _____

True or false: We can always trust that someone who calls themselves a Christian is telling us the truth about God.

The truth is sometimes hard to hear, we won't always _____ it.

The truth sometimes makes us look or _____ bad.

But in the end, the truth is the _____ thing we could ask for.

Expect God's way to be _____

Everyone who is saved by God's free grace will always _____ that salvation in the way they live.

When that is missing, we cannot say they _____ follow God.

The way we _____ shows other people what kind of God we serve.

Expect God's people to be _____

It is wrong of us to conclude that just because God hasn't punished sin, then he won't punish it.

In the _____ of Jesus, we see both God's intention to judge sin and his ability to save his people.

Even when people lie about God and try to tell us wrong things, God will protect us until the end.
