Unbelief is not about proof – it's about _____

It is not our _____ that makes us belong to God's people; It is our _____ to God's people that makes us believe.

We don't fail to believe God's promises and obey God's commands because we need more _____; we fail because our _____ belong to another.

Rejection is not about confusion – it's about _____

Instead of _____ the shepherd, the Jewish leaders tried to _____ him and it can be tempting for us to do the same.

The question for us is this: in what ways do we try to shape Jesus into what we _____ him to be instead of _____ to who He really is as revealed in God's Word?

Jesus rescues us from our desire to control Him by showing us that He's _____ than anything we try to make Him into.

Salvation is not about you holding – it's about being _____

In this passage, who does Jesus say is holding on to believers, ensuring that their salvation endures to the end? The _____ and the _____.

We often think of the gospel as Jesus making His people _____ enough to hold on, but the foundation of the gospel is the strength of God's _____ on His people.

Because Jesus will never let go of his people, we are free to follow Him with confidence
