

The title of today's sermon is _____

Though our disobedience deserves death, God graciously provides a way of salvation.

Our disobedience leads to danger

A hard heart is one that will not _____ to God and is _____.

Even our faith is a _____ from God. Without God's help, we would be just as _____ and _____ as Pharaoh.

When we sin, we _____ God, becoming his _____. And God will in the end _____ his enemies.

The Son's sacrifice leads to salvation

Even our best obedience isn't _____ to make up for our sin. Only by a _____ can we be saved.

Circumcision points us to _____, whose blood keeps God's covenant and _____ our sins.

God's promise leads to praise

The message Moses and Aaron gave to the Israelites was of a deliverance that had not _____ happened. They worshiped God for what he was _____ to do.

When we worship God for what he has _____ to do, we show that we trust him to be _____ to his words.

Even though God seriously punishes everyone who doesn't follow him perfectly, he makes a way for us to be saved from his punishment.
