God's work is not hindered by _____, so we respond to God-given _____.

Just like Paul, we can be confident that wherever we are, God has brought us there and has a _____ for us.

God uses unexpected and difficult things to accomplish _____ things we couldn't imagine.

Sometimes we can't understand what God is doing. But our confidence in following God comes from knowing that even when we don't understand, God is in _____.

God's work is not hindered by _____, so we rest in God-given _____.

The Bible teaches us not to expect _____ to believe in Jesus.

But it also teaches us to be _____ that some people will believe.

The reason people do not believe is because they have a _____ problem, a heart that is turned away from God, unable to believe. But God promises to give people _____ hearts so they can believe and follow him.

When we are following God, we are responsible for our _____.

God is the one _____ for the results.

Nothing can stop God's good plans, so we follow him with confidence.
