

The title of today's sermon is _____

Word Bank

sheep	peace	shalom	judge	justice	sin
broken	rescue	security	shepherd	David	Jesus
blessing	fair	safe	enough	punished	cross
day	grace	able	guilty	victims	harms
nothing	love	heart	last	buying	belonging

Because the world is not _____, he brings peace through justice

God's people can trust that, because of Jesus, sin will always be _____.

It is either punished on the _____ or on the _____ of judgment.

The death of Jesus makes _____ possible by healing the _____ relationships in our lives. The _____ from God to us makes us _____ to show grace to one another.

Because the world is not _____, he brings peace through security

The Bible says we are all _____ of sin, but also that we are _____ of sin.

God promises a day when there is nothing that _____ his children. Until then, he promises that _____ can come between his children and his _____.

Because the world is not _____, he brings peace through blessing

There are two main problems with the treasure the world gives: it cannot satisfy our _____ and it will not _____.

The real blessing that will satisfy us does not come from _____, but from _____.

We all want to feel peace in our lives, and that only comes to us by trusting Jesus.