

The title of today's sermon is _____

In Christ, God saves us from our own sin and from the sins of others against us.

Sin Will _____ Us

When we choose to _____ God's way, there are _____ consequences.

Sin's consequences are not just eternal judgment. Sin also affects our _____ and _____ and our _____.

The only way we will be saved from the _____ of our sin is if sin itself is _____ from us – and that's what Jesus has done

Evil Will _____ Us

Some of the troubles we face have _____ to do with us. They happen because God's enemies attack God's people.

The gospel is the good news that because of the _____ of God through Jesus Christ, the evil that afflicts us will one day be no more.

God Will _____ Us

The writer of the Psalm knows he doesn't need to _____ himself: He has a defender, a savior. And he can be _____ when he feels wronged by others because he serves a God who will soon make things right. We know God _____ answer, because in Christ, he _____ answered.

Because of what Jesus has done, we know that our sadness about our own sin and the sins of other people will one day be taken away.
