Sin brings shame, but God will cover it

Shame is the feeling that there is something _____ about us, something we naturally want to _____ from others.

The _____ of Jesus solves the shame problem that began with Adam. Jesus takes our _____ for himself, and he covers us with his _____.

Sin brings blame, but God will pardon it

The reason blame is a danger to our _____ is because it keeps us from being truly _____.

To trust Jesus is to admit the blame is _____, but also to rejoice because the _____ goes to Jesus.

Sin brings pain, but God will conquer it

Things that would be _____ without sin are made _____ when we try to do things our own way and not God's.

God promises us that from the woman will come a _____ who will step on the head of the _____, even though he will _____ in return.

If the root of our pain and the cause of it is _____, then the solution can only be the _____ of sin. And only _____ can do that.

Sin brought many kinds of sadness into the world, but God fixes all of it through Jesus.
