

The title of today's sermon is _____

Because of how God saves us, our sin should lead us to praise God.

The _____ of Our Sin

Whenever we sin against another _____ we are first sinning against _____.

Sin is not just mistakes we make or hurtful things we _____. It is a deep sickness that _____ up in the things we do; but the root of our sin is in our _____.

The _____ of Our Salvation

When David calls for hyssop, he's calling for the blood of the _____ that God has promised will make his people _____. No animal sacrifice could do that. Only the blood of _____ is strong enough to wash away our sin.

Saving and forgiving aren't the same thing! Forgiveness is just the _____ of our salvation. When he saves us, God also gives us _____ and gives us a new _____ that will follow him.

The _____ of Our Celebration

Salvation isn't just for us and our own sake. God has saved us for a _____ – that we would _____ him and give him _____.

Your sin is not about you – it's about the _____ you rejected, and the _____ he made for you, and the song that _____ him.

Even though we feel bad about the wrong things we do, God saves us and we should praise him for it.
