Intro: _____ keeps us from consistently and fully obeying God, and because _____ is so powerful, we can't accept cheap substitutes as a solution.

We need more than a second _____

The main point of this story is to show that despite humanity's second chance, sin is still a

_____. Instead of a second chance, Jesus gives us what we really need,

_____ - not a second chance, but a second _____.

A second chance wouldn't help us _____ because we are still of the _____.

We need God's _____ to enable us to obey.

We need more than a good _____

Our main problem is not that we _____ examples, but that sin keeps us from _____ those examples. Jesus IS our example BUT he is also more than our example, because even the best example can't change what's in our _____. What we need is not a perfect example to _____ but a perfect example to take your _____.

We need more than a right _____

By association, we mean being _____ to someone or something, but not actually a part of it. Every human being has an identity as an _____ of God because of their sin. Jesus _____ the identity of his followers and makes us adopted children of God.
