

The title of today's sermon is _____

When oppressed by lies, Christians can rest on the truth of God's promises

The _____ we face

What is David feeling in this psalm?

David feels surrounded by _____, and because of that, he feels _____.

Jesus not only died to save us from our _____, He saved us into His _____, which we call the _____.

The _____ we have

What is the promise David had in Psalm 12?

That God would _____, which means that he would keep him _____.

God keeps us safe, but that doesn't mean followers of God never have anything _____ happen to them. We are actually promised trouble and _____.

God keeps us safe because he gives us ultimate protection from our biggest _____, which is _____.

The _____ we need

If we are surrounded by lies and are promised trouble even after following Jesus, what keeps us going until the end?

Our _____ in God's promises provides comfort and strength, but it is _____ himself who preserves his people.

Christians, in Jesus, we are promised _____ over sin right now.

When lies are all around us and we are hurt by those lies, followers of Jesus can depend on God's true promises
