The King Returns with _____

We all truly want a God who judges, because all of us _____ the wrong things that surround us. When King Jesus returns with judgment, he will _____ against all the _____ in the world.

In the end, there are only two sides you can be on: you are either _____ Jesus, or you are _____ him.

The King Returns with _____

Which Psalm describes Jesus ruling the nations? _____

The Jesus who returns in Revelation 19 is Jesus as he truly is – a _____ king with great power. When he was born in Bethlehem, walking in Galilee, and dying on the cross, he was holding back all that power so that he could _____ us by his _____. Though Jesus returns with an _____, he doesn't _____ it. The same Word that _____ the world also has the power to end _____.

The King Returns with _____

Which prophet also describes the birds gathering before a battle? _____

The “feast of the birds” is supposed to show us that there is no _____ for evil to ever _____ once Jesus begins to _____ as king.

His plan is not to _____ his kingdom from the _____ of sin, his plan is to remove _____ from the presence of his _____.

Because Jesus's final victory defeats all evil and unites his people to himself, God's people can join in heaven's song now.
