

The title of today's sermon is _____

God's people can confidently say "no" to doing wrong because God is faithful to save them.

Why Do We Have to Be _____?

The first of the Ten Commandments is to _____ only the Lord, because every other commandment depends on that. When we worship God, we choose to _____ the way he tells us. When we say "no" to living the way our _____ do, we are not rejecting their ideas, we are rejecting their _____.

What Is the _____ Worth?

A faithful servant of God is a _____ for the enemy, so if you will not be converted, you must be _____. This is the promise of the gospel: That we do not _____ anything, even if we pay a great _____. Because God's reward is _____ than anything we could lose.

Where Is _____?

You serve a God who not only is _____ to save, He is a God who has _____ that power beyond a shadow of a doubt. How has God proved that he is able and willing to save his children? God is not only a God of the _____ times. He is especially a God of the _____ and painful times, and when we see him with us in those times, we know him _____.

What Does _____ Look Like?

The goal is not to _____ God's enemies, but to _____ them.

We can do the right thing, even when it's hard, because God protects his people.
