

The title of today's sermon is _____

God's people are able to live faithfully in an unfaithful world, because they trust the one who is in control of all their days.

Seek Peace

God calls us to never stop trying to make the world a _____ place.

And even people who don't serve God can be our _____ in making the world more like how God wants it to be. Christians serve a _____ king, and we pray your kingdom come, your will be done on _____ as it is in _____.

When we seek _____ and try to make the world better, we are carrying out the will of our king.

Stand Firm

For the Christian, there will _____ reach a point where what God calls us to do is in conflict with what the people around us want us to do. When that happens, even if it makes people angry or sad, we _____ follow God's way. For those who are in Christ Jesus, there is no threat that can truly _____ us. And there is no _____ greater than what God has given us. And that makes us able to say a confident " _____ " when we are asked to leave God's way.

See What God Will Do

God's definition of success is often _____ from ours, and he sometimes works in ways that confuse us; but he certainly is always at _____. God does not save you just so you can be _____. God saves you so that you can fulfill your _____. So the gospel is not just about what Jesus does for us, it is also about what Jesus does _____ us.

Because we trust God, we can follow him, even in a world where most people do not follow him.
