A covenant is a _____ where God tells us how he will _____ his people and what he _____ of them.

Good things, even religious things, even things God has _____, cannot _____ the way of salvation that God has made for us. That way of salvation is only through _____ in what Jesus has done.

The _____ the Law Has

God gave the law so that we could know _____ from _____.

This is important because God created us to _____ what he is like.

God's law warns us that there is only one path to _____. In _____, he tries to keep us from choosing things that will only _____ us.

The purpose of the law is to reveal your need for a _____, and to emphasize that you _____ be that savior. You need God to make a way for you to be made _____.

The _____ the Law Lacks

The law can _____ your sin and _____ your sin, but even the law of God cannot _____ your sin.

The law of God lacks the power to give life. The law, when obeyed, is instead a sign that life exists.

Keeping the law puts the burden of _____ on you. But when God gave Abraham the _____, he did something amazing: God promised to do _____ himself.

God's law is a good thing, but keeping his law is not what saves us. Only Jesus saves us.
