The Facilitator – Date

Get Acquainted/Get to know you - The Earned becomes The Gift

What is something that was earned by another but became yours, really yours, but as a gift?

Example: Our home, that we love very, very much and is better than anything we ever dreamed possible, is only ours as a gift from friends both the skilled folks who built it but also the friends who helped fund it.

Conclusion: We are loved by God and by some of his really amazing servants.