

1. Launchers: Do you let your curiosity roam into mysteries and questions that are bigger than yourself?

2. Worship God: Isaiah 40:6-11

Worship the LORD for His enormity! Praise Him, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, by meditating and basking on His divinity and majesty.

3. Sermon Reflection: Our Everlasting Dwelling Place

Everlasting to Everlasting

- Dream together as a group about immensity and everlasting-ness of God. Moses dreamt into it by saying a thousand years is to God like yesterday, what are other ways to dream into who He is?
- Why don't we like to think about God's attributes and eternity? How does it make us feel?
- Where in your life can you resonate with the story about the pastor from Zimbabwe?

Dust and Grass

- What verses from the psalm are the hardest for you to read?
- What will happen if we don't acknowledge and feel the weight of our frailty? Why will this happen?
- What brokenness or frailty did you feel this past week that made you think “That's not how things were meant to be.”

Our Dwelling Place

- Why is Jesus so distinct and unique over every other religion or belief system?
- If Jesus walked out of the tomb, then why is everything going to be alright?
- Enjoy the steadfast love of the Lord together in prayer, meditating on his immensity, our frailty, and Jesus' work of relating to us and saving us.

4. Kingdom Centered Prayer: You Can Pray with Us

1. Worship the LORD for His enormity! Praise Him, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, by meditating and basking on His divinity and majesty.
2. Confess how little you practice the first prayer. Acknowledge that you have spent the majority of your time making much of who you are and not of who He is.
3. Thank Jesus and give Him a shout of praise that despite our frailty and corruption, He counts us as His greatest treasure. He loves us!
4. Who do you know that is in total denial of their frailty? Who do you know that doesn't take the anger of God seriously? Pray that the Lord would be abundantly gracious and merciful by illuminating their hearts to their sin and frailty and need for a savior.
5. Ask Holy Spirit to give you the ambition to set up practices focused on these three things: Knowing that your days are numbered, Worshiping the Lord's Glory, and resting in His love as our Eternal dwelling place.

5. Mission: Our mission as Christians is to be satisfied and known in the steadfast love of our Lord. We do this by practicing His significance and our insignificance—and then to know that he died for us. What wondrous love is this!

- Who is it in your life that you can pray would be “emancipated” from their sin and desire of evil, as Ashley prayed for us this morning?
