

1. Launcher: How specific can your cravings be?

2. Worship God – Galatians 5:16:17

Worship the LORD for His sufficiency and goodness. Praise him, rather, son and Holy Spirit, that He is enough vs. all enticements in this world) and that He is purely good (vs. all lies and deceptions)

3. Sermon Reflection: “To Hunger and Thirst for Righteousness”

What Do You Really Want?

- How does the object of our desire define our trajectory?
- Why do decisions prove what we truly love? Why is it that our desires (our loves) shape us?

What If It’s Warped & Twisted

- What if our desires are broken or hi-jacked? Does it seem that way to you?
- How is it a mercy that things of this world do not satisfy us?

Redeemed & Satisfied

- What has Jesus done for our desires??
- When are examples from the Bible of the unrighteous becoming righteous? Do you really believe and have faith that the Spirit is weaving your desires to be more shaped by what the LORD desires? To be shaped and molded into righteousness?

4. Kingdom Centered Prayer: You Can Pray with Us

1. Worship the LORD for His sufficiency and goodness. Praise him, rather, son and Holy Spirit, that He is enough vs. all enticements in this world) and that He is purely good (vs. all lies and deceptions).
2. How have you lived hungering and thirsting for what could never satisfy you while rejecting Jesus in His goodness and love? Confess your pride and folly to Him, asking for His work to forgive and renew your heart
3. Give thanks for how Jesus has given Himself so freely for us (by His death and resurrection) to atone for our guilt. And thank Him for giving His Spirit to us, to satisfy us to the uttermost - and for all eternity.
4. Who do you know who hungers and thirsts after righteousness? Pray for them, and for the opportunity to learn from them in how they set aside the things of this world that do not suffice, and for how they seek their satisfaction in Christ.
5. Ask the Holy Spirit to bear in you His fruit of love and joy. Thank Him that He is at work in you both to will and to work for His good pleasure" (Philippians 2) and pray for growing desires for Christ vs. the lies of this world.

5. Mission: We are on mission as Christians to believe and proclaim over ourselves the truth of the Gospel! That we have a new and totally satisfactory identity, mission, and destination in Christ.
