

1. Launcher: Who in your life do you believe has made an impact versus evil?

2. Worship God – Titus 2:13-14

Worship the LORD for his holiness. Praise Him, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for the splendor of His purity and goodness.

3. Sermon Reflection: “To Be Salt & Light”

Agents of Redemption

- What would it mean to be an agent of redemption in Jesus’ Kingdom?
- What is the significance of salt in Jesus’ teaching? Is it multifaceted?
- Do you live in the reality of your Kingdom mission being a multifaceted glorious endeavor/adventure?

To Lose or To Hide

- How has problem of sin left us corrupt and distorted?
- How have we represented to outsiders a greater display of corruption than integrity?

Jesus’ Saving Presence

- Why is there still hope when we have more often than not lived fearfully and mute?
- In what ways did Jesus come to us precisely as salt and light?
- If Christians deliver salt and light in the face of persecution, what does that kind of engagement look like? Think about particular scenarios: What does it mean to be salt & light at your job? In your home? At the church? In your relationships? With strangers?

4. Kingdom Centered Prayer: You Can Pray with Us

- I. Worship the LORD for his holiness. Praise Him, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for the splendor of His purity and goodness.
  - II. How have you lived making room in your heart for corruption and lies? Confess your rot and darkness to Jesus, asking Him to save you, purifying you and filling you with the Truth of His Word.
  - III. Give thanks to Jesus for his work to solve both problems of our sin – our guilt and our deadness. Thank Him, that vs. evil, He cleanses you to His standards of purity, and fills you with His holiness and Light.
  - IV. Who do you know that is corrupt and untrue? Pray for them, asking the Lord to have mercy on them just as He has had mercy on someone as corrupt and untrue as you.
  - V. Ask the Holy Spirit to work into your greater integrity. Pray for purity of heart, endurance in learning Scripture, courage to put away lies (and philosophies of life built on untruths), and for love of what is good!
5. Mission: Our mission as Christians is to be utterly reliant on our help from our Great Physician, so that by His healing and power in the Holy Spirit, we may be salt and light in a world fraught with corruption and darkness—knowing in faith that the light has shone in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it nor will it ever.
