 THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Preparation for Worship

To all who are spiritually weary and seek rest;
 to all who mourn and long for comfort;
 to all who struggle and desire victory;
 to all who sin and need a Savior;
 to all who are strangers and want fellowship;
 to all who hunger and thirst after righteousness;
 and to all who will come,
 this church opens wide her doors and offers welcome in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

God Calls Us to Worship | Psalm 98:1-4

Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for He has done marvelous things!
His right hand and His holy arm have worked salvation for Him.
 The LORD has made known His salvation;
He has revealed His righteousness in the sight of the nations.
 He has remembered His steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel.
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
Break forth into joyous song and sing praises!

This is my Father's world,
and to my list'ning ears,
all nature sings, and round me rings
the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world,
the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white,
declare their Maker's praise.

This is my Father's world:
he shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass,
he speaks to me ev'rywhere.

This is my Father's world,
O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong,
God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's world:
the battle is not done;
Jesus who died shall be satisfied,
and earth and heav'n be one.

We Listen to God's Word | Psalm 103 (Pg. 594 in pew Bibles)

Of David.

- [1] Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and all that is within me,
bless his holy name!
- [2] Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits,
- [3] who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,
- [4] who redeems your life from the pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love
and mercy,
- [5] who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- [6] The LORD works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.
- [7] He made known his ways to Moses,
his acts to the people of Israel.
- [8] The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
- [9] He will not always chide,
nor will he keep his anger forever.
- [10] He does not deal with us
according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.
- [11] For as high as the heavens are above the earth,
so great is his steadfast love toward
those who fear him;
- [12] as far as the east is from the west,
so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

- [13] As a father shows compassion to his children,
so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.
- [14] For he knows our frame;
he remembers that we are dust.
- [15] As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower of the field;
- [16] for the wind passes over it, and it is gone,
and its place knows it no more.
- [17] But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children,
- [18] to those who keep his covenant and remember to do his commandments.
- [19] The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.
- [20] Bless the LORD, O you his angels,
you mighty ones who do his word,
obeying the voice of his word!
- [21] Bless the LORD, all his hosts, his ministers, who do his will!
- [22] Bless the LORD, all his works,
in all places of his dominion.
Bless the LORD, O my soul! (ESV)

This is the Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!

We Confess Our Sins

O Lord, no day of my life has passed that has not proved me guilty of sin. Prayers have been uttered from a prayerless heart; praise has been often praiseless sound. Lord Jesus, though my sins rise to heaven Your merits soar above them. I appeal from the throne of Your perfect justice to Your throne of boundless grace. Grant me to hear Your voice assuring me that I am guilty of sin, but pardoned; wandering, but found; sinning, but cleansed. Give me perpetual broken heartedness, Give me perpetual broken heartedness, keep me always clinging to Your cross, flood me every moment with descending grace.

SILENT CONFESSION Please pause for a moment of silent confession.

We Hear Words of Assurance and Pardon | Colossians 1:13-14 (1168)

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the Kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

Friends, believe the good news of the Gospel: in Jesus Christ know that you're forgiven and be at peace.

Thanks be to God!

Come Behold the Wondrous Mystery

Text and Music: Matt Boswell, Matt Papa, Michael Bleecker; © 2012 Getty Music Hymns and Songs, CCLI License # 11123140

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
In the dawning of the King
He the theme of heaven's praises
Robed in frail humanity
In our longing in our darkness
Now the light of life has come
Look to Christ who condescended
Took on flesh to ransom us

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
He the perfect Son of Man
In His living in His suff'ring
Never trace nor stain of sin
See the true and better Adam
Come to save the hell-bound man
Christ the great and sure fulfillment
Of the law in Him we stand

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
Christ the Lord upon the tree
In the stead of ruined sinners
Hangs the Lamb in victory
See the price of our redemption
See the Father's plan unfold
Bringing many sons to glory
Grace unmeasured love untold

Come behold the wondrous myst'ry
Slain by death the God of life
But no grave could e'er restrain Him
Praise the Lord He is alive
What a foretaste of deliv'rance
How unwavering our hope
Christ in power resurrected
As we will be when He comes

We Ask for God's Help | A Prayer for Bereaved Mothers

O Christ, Man of Sorrows, acquainted with grief, This day we gather, hearts vulnerable and tender, to remember those mothers among us who have loved and lost, who have carried hope and met sorrow, whose bodies have known the weight of hope and the hollowing ache of absence; whose arms ache with emptiness, and whose hearts pulse with remembrance.

Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

In a world that hurries past sorrow, we pause. We name the empty places at our tables, the birthdays uncelebrated, the lullabies unsung. We remember each child—seen and unseen— held for a moment, or only in longing, each one a testimony to love that outlives the grave.

How long, O Lord? How long until You make all things new?

Jesus, You entered a world trembling with grief. You lingered at gravesides. You wept with the brokenhearted. You blessed children, welcoming them into Your embrace— and in so doing, You welcomed us all. You know the ache of separation. You sanctify our tears.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

So we bring what we can scarcely name: our disappointment, our longing, our exhaustion. We bring our anger, our confusion, our persistent hope— that this is not how it will always be.

In our grief, shape our longing for Your kingdom.

Spirit of the living God, brood over the chaos of our sorrow. Speak comfort that seeps into our bones. Give us courage to remember, to name our children, to hold one another in tender solidarity. Make our tears seeds of hope— signs that we wait for resurrection.

Come quickly, Lord Jesus. Make all things well.

As we pause and remember, let our lament become longing, our longing become hope, our hope become witness: that our God is the God who keeps every promise, who gathers up every fragment, who will, in time, turn mourning into dancing.

We wait for You, O Lord, more than watchmen for the morning. Comfort, O comfort Your people. Amen.

We Confess Our Faith | Heidelberg Catechism, 1563, Q&A 1

Christian, What is your only comfort in life and death?

That I am not my own, but belong with body and soul, both in life and in death, to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ. He has fully paid for all my sins with his precious blood, and has set me free from all the power of the devil. He also preserves me in such a way that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, all things must work together for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit he also assures me of eternal life and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live for him.

We Greet Others with Peace | Romans 15:13

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

And also with you!

TrinityKids: During the Greeting of Peace, children 5 & under may be dismissed to walk to TrinityKids. Nursing mothers are welcome to use the Nursing Mothers' room at the back of Trinity Hall, where the service can be viewed on the monitor, or they are welcome to use the rockers in the Nursery in the TrinityKids area.

We Are Changed By God's Word | Ephesians 3:7-13 (pg. 1160)

[14] For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, [15] from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, [16] that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, [17] so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, [18] may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, [19] and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. (ESV)

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

We Celebrate Holy Communion

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts!

We lift them up to the Lord!

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

It is right and good and a joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks unto You, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God. Therefore, with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify Your glorious name; evermore praising You, and singing:

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him all creatures here below; Praise Him above ye heavenly hosts; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Living Hope

Text and Music: Brian Johnson and Phil Wickham, © 2017 Phil Wickham Music, CCLI License # 1123140

How great the chasm that lay between us
How high the mountain
I could not climb
In desperation I turned to heaven
And spoke Your name into the night
Then through the darkness
Your loving-kindness
Tore through the shadows of my soul
The work is finished the end is written
Jesus Christ my living hope

Who could imagine so great a mercy
What heart could fathom such boundless grace
The God of ages stepped down from glory
To wear my sin and bear my shame
The cross has spoken I am forgiven
The King of kings calls me His own
Beautiful Savior I'm Yours forever
Jesus Christ my living hope

Hallelujah praise the One who set me free Hallelujah death has lost its grip on me
You have broken every chain
There's salvation in Your name
Jesus Christ my living hope

Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence the Roaring Lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Jesus Yours is the victory

Fairest Lord Jesus,
Ruler of all nature,
Son of God and Son of Man!
Thee will I cherish,
Thee will I honor,
Thou my soul's glory, joy and crown.

Fair is the sunshine,
Fair is the moonlight,
And all the twinkling starry host;
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer
Than all the angels heav'n can boast.

Fair are the meadows,
Fair are the woodlands,
Robed in the blooming garb of spring;
Jesus is fairer, Jesus is purer,
Who makes the woeful heart to sing.

Beautiful Savior!
Lord of the nations!
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor, praise, adoration
Now and forever more be Thine.

God Sends Us Out With His Good Word | Ephesians 3:20-21 (1161)

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

We Go Into The World For His Glory

Let us go forth in joyful service to the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, as we love our neighbors, our city and the world.

Thanks be to God!

Questions for Family Worship and Community Groups

1. When have you felt spiritually dry, distant, or weak in your walk with Christ? How did you respond?

2. What truths from this passage encourage you to rest more deeply in the limitless love of Christ?

3. Paul prays that we would be filled with all the fullness of God together as a community. How can our group help each other experience more of God's presence, love, and purpose—not just individually, but together?

CHILDREN'S QUESTIONS:

1. Movement: Have everyone give themselves a big hug, or wrap up in a cozy blanket. Question: When you're wrapped up tight and warm, how does it feel? The Bible says Jesus wants to be close to us and make His home in our hearts by His Holy Spirit. How do you think it would feel to have Jesus that close all the time?

2. Movement: Have children stretch their arms out as wide as they can and try to touch the walls or see who can reach the farthest. Question: Look how wide your arms can stretch! Paul says Jesus' love is even wider, longer, higher, and deeper than we can imagine. Can you remember a time when you felt loved by Jesus or someone else? How big do you think God's love could be?

3. Movement: Have children build a small tower with blocks together, or get in a group huddle. Question: It takes teamwork to build something or stay together in a huddle. Paul says we learn about God's love with all of God's people, not just by ourselves. What are some ways we can help each other remember and share God's love at church or at home?
