

October 29 ("The Promise of the Holy Spirit")

Verses: Acts 2:33

Takeaway: The Spirit of God who gave the disciples power long ago on Pentecost, is the same Spirit of God who can empower us as disciples today.

Getting Started: Have you ever needed help? Who did you turn to for that help?

Read: Acts 2:33

Some QUESTIONS to consider:

Toddler/PreK:

- Who is this verse talking about?
- What is the Holy Spirit's work in our lives?
- Can we trust God to keep his promise to give us the Spirit?

Elementary:

- Who is this verse talking about?
- What is the Holy Spirit's work in our lives?
- Can we trust God to keep his promise to give us the Spirit?
- How should we respond to the gracious provision of God in our lives?

Here are some IMPORTANT IDEAS we discover in these verses :

Toddler/PreK:

- After Jesus died and rose again, He now sits at the right hand of God.
- Since the Son of God finished his work in this world, the Spirit of God has now come, according to God's promise.
- Wonderfully, God has proven time and time again that he keeps His promises!.
- The Spirit of God (or Holy Spirit) teaches about and gives us power to live for God. He helps us to learn more about God and to share Him with those around us.

- The Spirit of God (or Holy Spirit) was sent after Jesus' death and resurrection to teach the disciples about God, to guide them, and empower them to share the good news about Jesus with those around them.

An ENCOURAGEMENT in light of God's word:

(Toddler/PreK) Talk to God, thanking Him for always keeping His promises. Thank Him for sending His Spirit to teach us, to give us power to live for Him, and to share Him with those around us. Ask Him to do those things in your life this week and as you learn more about Him.

(Elementary) Talk to God, thanking Him for always keeping His promises. Thank Him for sending His Spirit to teach us, to give us power to live for Him, and then to share Him with those around us. As you think about your life, perhaps you can think of someone to pray for, and to share the good news about Jesus with this week.
