Our Bible Reading Plan [2024-2025]

“...the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms...”

The risen Jesus spoke of these three parts of the Old Testament in Luke 24:44, declaring that “everything written about me in [them] must be fulfilled”. While Jesus used these terms to refer to all of the Hebrew scriptures, we want to use them as given, in order to think carefully about how every part of the Bible points us to Christ.

- This plan contains readings from the Old and New Testaments.
- Chapters from the Hebrew Bible are paired with New Testament chapters that contain a quotation or clear allusion to a key idea (or ideas) from the Old Testaments reading for that week (with readings from the Psalms included every fourth week).
- These connections between the testaments highlight either references to Jesus himself, or to a new reality that is now possible because of his saving work.
- Try to find a quiet place to read and use a journal/notebook to record thoughts, questions, praises and/or prayers.
- Pray before and after you read. Ask God, through his Spirit, to help you learn, live, and love his word.
- In light of your reading, what might God have you share with a fellow believer or an unbeliever in your life?
