The One Who Trembles at God's Word (7/30/23)

Main Verses: Isaiah 66:1-2 Key Verse: Isaiah 66:2

'Takeaway': God wants us to understand his word. But more than that, he wants us to trust that his word is true, allowing our hearts to be gripped by its greatness.

Getting Started: Have you ever been so amazed by something that you actually shook (trembled)?

READ: Isaiah 66:1-2 (or have older kids help read).

Some QUESTIONS to consider:

Toddler/PreK:

- How big is God?
- Why do you think the people want to build a house for him? Where do they think he lives?
- What does it mean to tremble at God's word?

Elementary:

- Where do the people think God lives? Why do they want to build a house for him in exile?
- How does God respond to this?
- What does it mean to be humble & contrite in spirit?
- What does it mean to tremble at God's Word?

Here are some IMPORTANT IDEAS we discover in these verses:

Toddler/PreK:

- The people think that God lives in the temple they built, even though he has told (& showed) them repeatedly throughout the OT that he cannot be walled in–He is too big & too great.
- God reminds them (again) how big he is.
- God made everything. This should make us always respond to him with humility, aware of how small we are in comparison, & aware of how much we need him every moment of every day.
- To tremble at his word means we have & show deep respect (reverence) for his word & are eager to obey it.
- How wonderful that through faith in Jesus we can receive this kind of heart!

Elementary:

- The people think that God lives in the temple they built, even though he has told (& showed) them repeatedly throughout the OT that he cannot be walled in–He is too big & too great.
- God reminds them that he is greater than the temple—an institution he authorized.
- God made everything. This should make us always respond to him with humility, aware of how small we are in comparison, & aware of how much we need him every moment of every day.
- To tremble at his word means we have & show deep respect (reverence) for his word & are eager to obey it.
- How wonderful that through faith in Jesus we can receive this kind of heart!

An ENCOURAGEMENT in light of God's word:

(Toddler/PreK) Talk to God, & thank him for being so great & so big. Thank him that even though he is so big & great, he cares for each one of us & wants us to know him. Ask God to help you to be amazed by what he's revealed; to respect his word & to obey it. Thank God that through faith in Jesus, he will give us a new heart that wants to love and obey him.

(Elementary) Talk to God, & praise him for his greatness. Ask God to help you be amazed by what he's revealed; to respect his word & to obey it. Thank God for caring for each one of us & for wanting to give us new hearts to know him through faith in Jesus. Do you need a new heart, one that wants to please God more than anything, but are not sure where to start? Admit you are guilty of living a me-centered life instead of a God-centered one. Believe that Jesus is your only hope for forgiveness, freedom, & forever with God. With your whole heart & being, commit yourself to following Jesus' loving leadership. If you pray this, or have questions about what it means, talk to a trusted adult in your life about it.
