Shall our sins discourage us, when he appears there only for sinners? Are you bruised? Be of good comfort, he calls you. Conceal not your wounds, open all before him and take not Satan's counsel. Go to Christ, although trembling, as the poor woman who said, 'If I may but touch his garment' (Matt. 9:21). We shall be healed and have a gracious answer. Go boldly to God in our flesh; he is flesh of our flesh, and bone of our bone for this reason, that we might go boldly to him. Never fear to go to God, since we have such a Mediator with him, who is not only our friend but our brother and husband.

~ The Bruised Reed by Richard Sibbes

To our guests:

We are so glad that you have joined us for worship this morning. At West Oaks Baptist, we believe Jesus Christ alone can change lives, and His revelation to us is through His Spirit and through His Word. We live in His grace and mercy and desire to see others do the same. Our prayer is that you will experience God during our time together and feel welcomed by our church family. Any of us would be happy to answer questions you may have. Both of our pastors' information is listed on the front of the bulletin in case you have additional spiritual needs.

I Love To Tell The Story – SOTM January 2021

Verse 1 I love to tell the story Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and His glory, Of Jesus and His love.

I love to tell the story, Because I know 'tis true;
It satisfies my longings As nothing else can do.

Chorus I love to tell the story, 'Twill be my theme in glory
To tell the old, old story of Jesus and His love.

Verse 2 I love to tell the story; More wonderful it seems
Than all the golden fancies Of all my golden dreams,
I love to tell the story, It did so much for me;
And that is just the reason I tell it now to thee.

Verse 3 I love to tell the story; 'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems each time I tell it, More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story; For some have never heard
The message of salvation From God's own holy Word.

Verse 4 I love to tell the story; For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song,
'Twill be the old, old story, That I have loved so long.

Call to Worship – Romans 8:31-39

[31] What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? [32] He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? [33] Who shall bring any charge against God’s elect? It is God who justifies. [34] Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. [35] Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger, or sword? [36] As it is written,

“For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.”

[37] No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. [38] For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, [39] nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Scripture of Assurance – Psalm 23:4

[4] Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
