To our guests:

We are so glad that you have joined us for worship this morning. At West Oaks Baptist, we believe Jesus Christ alone can change lives, and His revelation to us is through His Spirit and through His Word. We live in His grace and mercy and desire to see others do the same. Our prayer is that you will experience God during our time together and feel welcomed by our church family. Any of us would be happy to answer questions you may have. Both of our pastors' information is listed on the front of the bulletin in case you have additional spiritual needs.

Psalm 8 O Lord Our Lord – SOTM March 2021

Chorus O Lord, our Lord,
How majestic is your name, Your name in all the Earth!

Verse 1 You have set your glory above the heavens.
Out of the mouth of babies and infants,
You have established strength because of your foes,
To still the enemy and the avenger.
When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which you have set in place,
what is man that you are mindful of him,
And the son of man that you care for him?

Chorus

Verse 2 Yet you have made him a little lower
Than the heavenly beings
And crowned him with glory and honor.
You have given him dominion over
The works of your hands;
You have put all things under his feet,
all sheep and oxen,
And also the beasts of the field,
the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea,
Whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Chorus

Bridge O Lord, our Lord,
How majestic is your name

Tag How majestic is your name
(Your name) in all the earth! (Repeat 4x)

Call to Worship – Hebrews 7:11-28

[11] Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? [12] For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well. [13] For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar. [14] For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests. [15] This becomes even more evident when another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek, [16] who has become a priest, not on the basis of a legal requirement concerning bodily descent, but by the power of an indestructible life. [17] For it is witnessed of him, “You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek.” [18] For on the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness [19] (for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God. [20] And it was not without an oath. For those who formerly became priests were made such without an oath, [21] but this one was made a priest with an oath by the one who said to him: “The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, ‘You are a priest forever.’” [22] This makes Jesus the guarantor of a better covenant. [23] The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in office, [24] but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. [25] Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them. [26] For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. [27] He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. [28] For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Scripture of Assurance – John 10:28-29

[28] I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. [29] My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father’s hand. [30] I and the Father are one.”
