

...for we have seen His star and have come to worship Him.

Paul Joseph Hickernell— pastor pauljhickernell@gmail.com December 15, 2024

^aWhen Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; ^band assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. Matthew 2:3-4 insights:

Lined writing area for insights.

other passages:

follow-up questions: (use a communication card / reach out to Paul / ask a mentor)

Lined writing area for follow-up questions.

soul-care questions: (let these questions guide you into deeper reflection and faith, whether alone or with others)

King for a Day!!!!!! What would you do if given supreme rule for a day?

The king is dead. Long Live The King. Read Colossians 3:1-17.

- For you have died (vs 3)...Put to death therefore (vs 5)- what does this mean?
- (vs 5-8) What does your old heart latch on to most?
- (vs9) How can lying to each other cause more harm? What is a better response? (1 Cor 5:12 might help)
- What does Col 3:10,16 mean and how should we practice it?
- How can we help each other DWELL in the Word of Christ and keep ourselves off the throne?

In what ways are you like Herod? What is the result? What do you need to do?

What is Jesus telling you to do this week and what are you going to do about it?

Between the Sundays: (3 ways you can go farther with the message)

1. Dive In: Join one of our December Hope Projects. Keep yourself off the throne and serve.
2. Pray: Practice daily confession. Use Col 3:5-8 as a guide.
3. Prepare: Visit whoishouseontherock.com/the-ascent-project and prepare for worship

Paul Joseph Hickernell— pastor pauljhickernell@gmail.com December 15, 2024

When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. Matthew 2:3-4

insights:

Handwritten notes area with multiple horizontal lines.

other passages:

Handwritten notes area with multiple horizontal lines.

follow-up questions: (use a communication card / reach out to Paul / ask a mentor)

Handwritten notes area with multiple horizontal lines.

soul-care questions: (let these questions guide you into deeper reflection and faith, whether alone or with others)

King for a Day!!!!!! What would you do if given supreme rule for a day?

The king is dead. Long Live The King. Read Colossians 3:1-17.

- For you have died (vs 3)...Put to death therefore (vs 5)- what does this mean?
(vs 5-8) What does your old heart latch on to most?
(vs 9) How can lying to each other cause more harm? What is a better response? (1 Cor 5:12 might help)
What does Col 3:10,16 mean and how should we practice it?
How can we help each other DWELL in the Word of Christ and keep ourselves off the throne?

In what ways are you like Herod? What is the result? What do you need to do?

What is Jesus telling you to do this week and what are you going to do about it?

Between the Sundays: (3 ways you can go farther with the message)

- Dive In: Join one of our December Hope Projects. Keep yourself off the throne and serve.
Pray: Practice daily confession. Use Col 3:5-8 as a guide.
Prepare: Visit whoishouseontherock.com/the-ascent-project and prepare for worship

