

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN A YEAR

Having daily devotions transforms and renews our minds so that, when we face similar situations as Jesus did, we begin to respond in the way He responded.

Journaling is an excellent way to both record and process what we read and learn. It's also a useful tool to use at a later time, to look back on what God has taught us. Without writing your impressions down, you will likely forget those blessings and some very important lessons.

Scripture

Open your Bible to the reading for each day. Take time as you read. Don't rush. Allow God to speak to you. When you are done, look for a verse that particularly spoke to you and write it in down.

Observation

What does God want you to learn from this passage of scripture? Ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and reveal Jesus to you. Paraphrase and write your observations.

Application

Personalize it and ask yourself how it applies to your life right now. Perhaps it is instruction, encouragement, a promise from God, or correction for a particular area of your life. Write how this scripture can apply to you today.

Prayer

This can be as simple as asking God to help you use this scripture, or it may be a greater insight on what He may be revealing to you. Now, write it out.
