Cantate—Fourth Sunday After Easter

May 18, 2014

The Holy Spirit, The Comforter

God's Kingdom comes whenever He sends us His Holy Spirit. And the Spirit is never sent apart from Our Lord in the Gospel preaching and Gospel Sacraments. Draw near with the Faithful of God, then, to hear and receive the Spirit of the Church!

The Theme of Today's Liturgy

Today we get to sing to the Lord the "new song" born from the marvelous things and the salvation Our Lord openly shows (Introit). This salvation is the Holy Spirit who is the "good and perfect gift from above" (Epistle). The Spirit's salvation is to guide us into all truth (Gospel). And by the Spirit we pray the Father that we may "love what you command and desire what you promise" (Collect).

The Sermon

When the Christ departs, the Helper comes. He is the Spirit that proceeds from the Father and the Son. He is the Paraclete, the Comforter, the One who exhorts. Whatever the Spirit speaks He hears from the Father and the Son. So the most profound Mystery, the Mystery of the Holy Trinity, is revealed to you. And the Spirit comes to convict the world. That is His work. He convicts the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment. Faith receives the Gifts of God, unbelief is convicted. He in whom Christ dwells is declared righteous, the man without Christ is unrighteous. The man who is marked by the Triune God is vindicated, the man who bears any other mark is judged and condemned. The Christian is purchased, redeemed, won by Christ to be reconciled to the Father. Therefore you, O Baptized, you belong to the Triune God.

The Holy Eucharist

The Holy Spirit comforts you in the Holy Eucharist by opening your spiritual eyes to believe that the bread is Christ's Body and the wine is Christ's Blood given to be your forgiveness, your life and your salvation.

The Mass: Intercessions

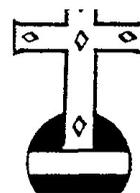

Every Christian has the right to pray. This is God's will. When we pray in the right way, we do not think only of our own needs, but of the needs of all the people we love and work with as well, and we think of those who need our special help.

Now in the Prayer of the Church (the Intercessions), the congregation thinks of all its children and excludes no one, just as Jesus prayed for all His friends. We call Jesus our High Priest, because He prays for us. In the Intercessions, we pray to God in the Name of Jesus and present all the needs of the Church. But let us not forget that this prayer is also a Thanksgiving, for thanksgiving must always precede all petitions.

Hymns: 21, 458, 437, 528

Music for Cantate

Proclaim the wonders God hath done! It is fitting on Cantate (Latin: “sing”) Sunday to sing Luther’s (1483-1546) first congregational hymn, “Dear Christians, One and All, Rejoice” (# 387). Having rediscovered the Gospel and the joy that comes through Christ’s salvation, Luther wrote this hymn in 1523. It likely also had as its inspiration “Salvation Unto Us Has Come (# 377).

Stanza nine fits well with today’s Gospel from John 16:5-15:

Now to My Father I depart, The Holy Spirit sending
 And heavenly wisdom to impart, My help to thee extending
 He shall in trouble comfort thee, Teach thee to know and follow Me,
 And in all truth shall guide thee.

The tune is said to have been transcribed by Luther after he heard it sung by a traveling artisan.

At the Lamb’s High Feast We Sing The DISTRIBUTION HYMN (insert) is a Latin hymn from the sixth-ninth centuries. Bringing in Old Testament imagery, the hymn is a rich portrayal of joy in Christ emphasized in the Easter season.

F. Samuel Janzow (1913-2001), professor at of theology and English at Concordia University Chicago and member of the hymnal committee for the 1982 Lutheran Worship, summarizes:

“The Easter joy of faith’s feeding upon Christ and his sin-and-death-and-hell-conquering crucifixion and resurrection is poetically pictured in this hymn as a feast at which the blood of the Lamb is the wine that faith drinks, and the Lamb’s flesh, or body, is the food upon which it feeds during this victory banquet.”

THE PSALM FOR THIS WEEK IS PSALM 98. PRAY IT EVERY DAY!

The “old song” was one of despair sung on the way out of the Garden of Eden. The “new song” is based not on our creativity, but on the salvation and mercy of Our Lord toward the whole earth (v 1-3). Everything in creation joins in this song (v 4-8). It reaches its climax until the Lord comes (v 9). Yet the Lord’s coming will not produce another song of fear, but will continue the song of joy. For the Lord’s judgment means the end of death and the beginning of new life!

Today's Announcements

CANTATE means "sing." This is the first word of Psalm 98 and the Introit appointed for this day. Psalm 98 is a joyous psalm that ascribes glory and praise to God for His great redemptive work – giving His only-begotten Son Jesus Christ to die for the sins of the world, and then to rise to new life on the first Easter morning. Christ is the Right Hand and Holy Arm of God, God in the flesh. Christ is the Righteousness revealed to the nations. Christ is our salvation, "the salvation of our God." By God's grace through faith in Jesus Christ, we, like all Christians of all time, are saved. Those who follow the propers carefully will note that the Gospel readings appointed for Jubilate (last week), Cantate (this week), and Rogate (next week) are all from the sixteenth chapter of St. John.

ADULT CHOIR The choir will sing for Ascension (May 29), and Pentecost (June 8). Rehearsals continue next Sunday at 9am in the Rectory. Thanks to those singing at Mass today: Kathleen Atkins, Leslie Braden, Patricia Braden, Sarah Braden, Thomas Habitz, Andrew Stechholz, and Janet Stechholz.

NEW MEMBERS RECEIVED In today's Mass, Michael and Sherry Edwards and son Elijah are received by Adult Confirmation. Children Leah, Josiah, and Anna are received as baptized members. A reception will follow Mass in the Undercroft to welcome the Edwards.

COMMUNITY CHORUS OF DETROIT presents the Verdi Requiem today at 4:30pm at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament, 9844 Woodward (at Boston Blvd). The concert will feature Metropolitan Opera-affiliated soloists, three guest choirs for a total of 175 voices and a full symphony orchestra, directed by Dr. Edward Maki-Schramm. Tickets are $40 at the door.

ZION MEN'S GROUP will meet on Thursday, May 22. We begin with Vespers in the Church and then return to the Rectory for study and Gemütlichkeit. Please RSVP for a count for the food: FrBraden@ZionDetroit.org.
