“THE SAXON SETTLEMENT OF 1580 AND FORMULA OF CONCORD ARTICLE X”

This Twenty-fifth annual St. Michael Liturgical Conference will focus on the history of the Holy Liturgy, the Propers of the Divine Service, and the great Canticle of the Church the Te Deum Laudamus.

Keynote Address: Rev. Dr. Jonathan Bruss - “Lutheran Liturgy: The Saxon Settlement of 1580 and Formula of Concord Article X”

The Saxon Church Order of 1580 allows modern interpreters of FC X to understand just what the formulators had in mind. The judicious application of the teaching of FC X in that church order stands within, reflects, and indeed replicates a long line of Lutheran liturgical thought traceable to Luther’s earliest work on the liturgy.

Q & A with Dr. Bruss - Fr. Mark Braden, Pastor of Zion, will facilitate a Q & A period during which conference attendees can interact with Dr. Bruss on his keynote presentation.

A Panel Discussion by this years’ presenters, joined by several distinguished guests and select Gottesdienst editors, will follow the Q&A. Questions from Conference attendees will be answered and discussed by the panel.

Workshops: The Lutheran Missal Project, “Let Me Never Be Confounded”, and the History of the Te Deum Laudamus. Two years after his first presentation to the Conference, Fr. Scamman will present an update on the Lutheran Missal Project. Fr. Beane will provide theological reflection on the words of the Te Deum “Let me never be confounded.” Fr. Eckardt will explore and discuss the mysterious history of the Te Deum Laudamus.

Rev. Dr. David Petersen, Pastor of Redeemer Evangelical-Lutheran Church of Fort Wayne, will preach at the Solemn High Mass.
